Watertown Library Association & Abstract Publications Present

FREE—PUBLIC EVENT

Meet Joe McGee on March 21, 2017 @ 7pm to 8pm at 470 Main St, Watertown CT at the Watertown Library. Joe will be presenting Leadership Lessons Inspired By a 6 Year Old and will cover a few sections from his book. This event is open to the public and no RSVP is required.

Joe will speak on the following chapters:

- Chapter Two: Avoid Tunnel Vision – This covers that sometimes simplicity is best and often overlooked. The answers are often in front of your nose.
- Chapter Three: LTA principle and “The Pearl Necklace.” Learn how to instill confidence and become the subject matter expert.
- Chapter Five: Show and Tell is a must: Why it’s important to use objects to emphasize points.

After conclusion of the speaking event, Joe will be offering the following for attendees:

- Book Raffle—Enter to Win a Copy of his book
- Book Signing Purchasing available after the event (Cash or Personal Check)
- Q & A

About Joe McGee:

Joseph McGee is a graduate from Watertown High School (Class of 2000). Joseph McGee is a leadership consultant and also the President of the CT HDI Chapter (<http://cthdi.org>). Joseph is Six Sigma Black Belt Certified. He has been involved in speaking topics such as “Building Team Dynamics” and “Leadership Lessons Inspired By a 6 Year Old”, which has been expanded into the topics in this book. He lives in Connecticut with his wife Amanda and three children (Ursula, Nathan, and Tabitha.)

About the Book:

Leadership Lessons Inspired By a 6 Year Old is a leadership book based on a call center environment. This book speaks about the relationships of raising children and how they turn into valuable lessons of how to properly raise a team in the workplace. Join me through the journey of raising children while leveraging experiences into the workplace. One may not first relate fatherhood and leadership in the same sentence but I have learned first hand there is a relationship that exists.
